Introduction

Participants who already have some of the required knowledge and/or skills for part or the entire Development Coach course can apply to complete a module or the whole course via an assessment only pathway – known as Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).

This document explains the RPL process for you to complete. These tools will assist you to make a decision about whether to apply for recognition, apply to attend training, or a combination of both.

Steps in the RPL process

1. Read this guide and make a list of questions to ask your assessor if necessary.
2. Discuss the RPL process with your assessor to ensure you understand the process and the possible outcomes.
3. Complete the assessment and/or provide proof of your skills and knowledge to the assessor.
4. Assessor provides feedback and makes the assessment decision.
5. If you are unsuccessful, ask the assessor to explain your options.

Course outcomes

By the end of the course, you should be able to:

- Understand the role, legal obligations and ethical responsibilities of a Development Coach operating in a discipline specific environment.
- Identify risks associated with discipline specific coaching activities and identify relevant risk reduction strategies.
- Prepare a discipline specific Surf Sports monthly coaching plan and individual session plans suitable for participants in the Learn / Participate phase of development.
- Select coaching methods and activities appropriate to participants' (in the Learn / Participate phase of development) physical technical, tactical and psychological needs and characteristics.
- Safely conduct discipline specific Surf Sports coaching sessions, (with participants in the Learn / participate phase of development) which develop participants' physical technical, tactical and psychological skills.
- Utilise a range of communication skills and behaviour management strategies to help participants develop discipline specific skills and tactics.
- Develop strategies to build effective working relationships with parents, Surf Sports Officials and Club / Event Administrators.
- Review coaching programs and plans; and own performance and identify improvement strategies.

Proof of relevant skills and knowledge

In order to prove you already have the skills and knowledge delivered by this course, you can choose to EITHER:

- complete the assessment tasks for the course

OR

- provide proof that demonstrates you have these skills and knowledge, which might include:
 - demonstrating skills to your assessor
 - reports or references supporting your relevant skills and knowledge
