Introduction

SLSNSW is seeking Expressions of Interest from Clubs who may be interested in hosting rounds of the 2020 Sharkskin NSW IRB Premiership OR the 2020 Sharkskin NSW IRB State Championships.

NSW IRB competition attracts around 320-380 competitors, officials and supporters during Autumn/Winter. Roughly 25 Clubs on average participate mainly from the Hunter to South Coast Branches.

Background Information

The purpose of Surf Lifesaving competition is to attract and retain members and improve their lifesaving skills. The NSW IRB Premiership and IRB State Championships provide SLSNSW members the opportunity to compete against top quality IRB teams from across the State in an enjoyable environment, while maintaining vital lifesaving skills.

The six competition divisions include;

- Open Female
- Open Male
- U23 Mixed
- 35+ Mixed
- 45+ Mixed
- Rookie Mixed

The five competition disciplines include;

- IRB Rescue
- IRB Mass Rescue
- IRB Teams Rescue
- IRB Tube Rescue
- IRB Relay

The event not only caters for competitors but also provides opportunities to many other people to participate in roles such as officiating, powercraft and first aid etc.

Host Club Benefits

As the host venue, your club receives a range of benefits for holding this event in your local region.

Club Culture

Hosting a State event, provides your member with the opportunity to enhance comradery and pride in the club. Often host clubs use this opportunity draw on a wider pool of volunteers to engage in the club over the autumn/winter months and breathe life into the club facilities at a traditionally 'quiet' time of year.

Local and State Profile

As part of the Sharkskin IRB Competition Series, your club will be promoted to the wider network of clubs in anticipation of the event. Furthermore, media exposure is possible along with social media generated by SLSNSW. This is an opportunity to showcase your club both within and external to surf life saving.

Host Fee

SLSNSW will provide a hosting fee to the club for provision of services defined in a hosting MOU. This includes; administrative delivery, facilities and equipment, volunteer personnel and event support.

Officials Catering

SLSNSW provides the host club with the opportunity to cater for 50+ officials for breakfast, morning tea, lunch and debrief. SLSNSW meets the cost for officials catering to $19.00 incl GST per official per day. This is not included in the host fee.

Refreshments

At the conclusion of competition, your club has the opportunity to operate a club bar (within your current liquor licence) to service officials, competitors and supporters alike. SLSNSW provides a

BBQ

Your club has the opportunity to leverage from 350+ competitors, 50+ officials and 100+ supporters to operate a BBQ fundraiser for the duration of competition, in a prime position.

Local Council Support

Successful host clubs may be able to access local event grants and may be required to assist SLSNSW with funding applications to local councils or other organisations to reduce costs where possible.

Schedule and Format:

The Sharkskin IRB Premiership is typically conducted over 4 rounds allowing for a maximum of 2 full days for competition per round. Please note SLSNSW reserves the right to amend/modify any of the below schedule (e.g. A round may be reduced to 1 day of competition, include 2 rounds on one weekend or the format may be a standalone IRB competition) with reasonable notice to the host club.
