Subject:	Grant Opportunity – Australian Sports Foundation Active Kids Grant (closing 30 September 2020)

The Australian Sports Foundation Active Kids Grants are now open, closing 30 September 2020.

The Active Kids Grants have been established with the aim of providing children with the active childhood they deserve by supplying them with the equipment they need to participate in sporting activities.

Funding of up to $10,000 is available for sporting equipment, kit and uniforms for clubs in disadvantaged and/or rural communities.

This grant program will award funding to initiatives which result in a gap being overcome in at least one of the following areas:

- Rural
- Socioeconomically disadvantaged
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
- People with disabilities
- Girls
- Other – there could be some form of disadvantage in your region you seek to address

Key points to note:

- Only clubs that are 100% volunteer run and have no paid employees are eligible to apply
- Projects must specifically target young Australians aged under 20 years
- Applicants must be registered with ASF to be eligible to apply
- Notification of outcomes and payment of grants is expected to be late November 2020

Further information and the application form can be accessed from the following website:
