

2023 Oakberry Acai NSW Country Championships

Vendor Opportunities

One of Australia's largest surf carnivals is coming to the Mid Coast Council region in early 2023 and with it brings exciting opportunities for businesses to take part and get involved!

An action packed sporting spectacle, the carnival showcases incredible talent and competitiveness from all participants involved, as well as featuring a strong supporter and event volunteer presence.

The 2023 Oakberry Acai NSW Country Championships is open to clubs outside the Newcastle-to-Illawarra corridor. Within the state it is second only to the NSW Surf Life Saving Championships in size, with an expected 5,000 people in attendance including approximately 1,500 competitors, 150 officials and thousands of spectators.

Next year's Country Championships is as follows:

- Dates: Friday 27 January – Sunday 29 January 2023
- Location: Cape Hawke Surf Life Saving Club.

We are pleased to invite businesses to be a part of the action by setting up a retail or food & beverage stall at the 2023 Oakberry Acai NSW Country Championships. The Stall holder area will be in a good location, strategically positioned to achieve high interaction with event attendees.

Terms and Conditions

This agreement is made and entered into by and between Surf Life Saving New South Wales (referred to as “SLSNSW”) and the person, persons or company as identified above (referred to as “Stallholder”).

1. Applications

1.1 Stallholder applications are assessed on the ability to best fulfil the requirements of SLSNSW.

1.2 SLSNSW reserves the right to refuse or cancel Stallholder applications and is not obliged to disclose reasons for such refusal.

1.3 Applicants must hold Public and Products Liability Insurance ($20million) to cover the duration of the event, including bump in and bump out. A certificate of currency is required to be submitted with the application.

2. Payment

2.1 A non – refundable $25.00 application fee is required to be paid at the time of application. The application fee will be included in total fees payable to SLSNSW upon a successful application.

2.2 SLSNSW will require full payment from successful applicants by 5pm, Friday 20 January 2023.

2.3 SLSNSW reserves the right to offer the opportunity to other Stallholders, should payment not be received.

2.4 Payment will not guarantee the Stallholder to be the exclusive supplier of its product / or product type.

2.5 If the Stallholder fails to attend the event, the amount paid will be forfeited to SLSNSW.

2.6 Payment is subject to change at the discretion of SLSNSW.

2.7 Refunds or part refunds due to event cancellations or disruptions to the event will be at the discretion of SLSNSW.

3. Set Up & Signage

3.1 All display equipment and material must be located within the confines of the Stallholder's marquee.

3.2 It is the Stallholder's responsibility to ensure that all equipment brought to or utilised at the event by the Stallholder has been erected securely and is operated in a safe manner.

3.3 SLSNSW may direct the Stallholder where to place certain equipment or signage, and require the Stallholder to remove dangerous, faulty or unsightly equipment.

4. Power

4.1 It is solely the Stallholder's responsibility to arrange a portable generator prior to the event, at the Stallholder's expense.

4.2 SLSNSW reserves the right to request that a Stallholder turn off any generator where in the opinion of SLSNSW the generator is causing nuisance.

5. Security

5.1 The Stallholder must leave its stall as secure as possible over night and on non-competition days to avoid any losses. SLSNSW recommends the complete removal of all equipment, stock and tent walls.

5.2 SLSNSW will employ security for the entire event site compound however will not be responsible for the replacement of any stock if theft occurs or the rectification of any damage if vandalism occurs.

6. Retail Location

6.1 The positioning of stalls is wholly at the discretion of SLSNSW, with exact stall location advised closer to the Championship.

6.2 SLSNSW makes no representations as to the suitability or otherwise of the stall or its location for Stallholder's products or purposes.

7. Event Relocation

7.1 If the event is re-located (e.g. due to weather conditions or unfavourable surf conditions), the Stallholder, in consultation with SLSNSW, will be responsible for the relocation of its stall to the alternate venue.

7.2 SLSNSW will not be responsible for any loss of revenue if the event is relocated. There is no guarantee that contingency locations will be able to accommodate stallholders. SLSNSW will ensure communication to stallholders is done at the earliest possible time.

7.3 There will be absolutely no refunds in the case of cancellation of the event.

8. Behaviour

8.1 Stallholders are required to act in a professional manner, and be polite to other Stallholders, staff and the general public at all times.

8.2 Bringing SLSNSW, the event and/or its affiliates into disrepute, negatively influencing the public, customers or fellow stallholders, and/or not listening to instruction given by appropriate representatives of SLSNSW is not acceptable.

8.3 Any behaviour deemed unacceptable will result in Stallholder removal from the event and banning from any future attendance, with no refund and at the cost of the Stallholder.

9. Release

9.1 SLSNSW will not be responsible for any unsuccessful business goals that the Stallholder may set to achieve.

9.2 The Stallholder will release, indemnify and save SLSNSW from and against any and all obligations, damages, penalties, claims, costs, charges and expenses (including legal fees on a solicitor client basis), expenses and court costs that may arise to, by or from any person as a consequence (whether direct or indirect) of Stallholder's act or omission (including negligence) in operating its stall.

10. Authorisation

10.1 By accepting to be a Stallholder you agree and adhere to everything that is stated in this document and that the risk is solely on the Stallholder.
