From:	High Performance and Pathways
Subject:	Australian Open & Youth Assistant Coaches & Team Managers – Call for Nominations
Summary:	To appoint Assistant Coaches and Team Managers for the Australian Life Saving Team and Australian Youth Life Saving Team through to the 2024 World Campaign who are committed to the ongoing success and wellbeing of the team.

Background

The Australian Life Saving Team is committed to continuous improvement in the pursuit of excellence. This continued drive requires ongoing innovation, education and dedication from many stakeholders. SLSA and RLSSA are now calling for applications for the following positions to support the Australian and Australian Youth Life Saving Team;

- Australian Life Saving Team: Assistant Coach x 2
- Australian Youth Life Saving Team: Assistant Coach x 2
- Australian Life Saving Team: Manager
- Australian Youth Life Saving Team: Manager

The successful candidates must be committed to enhancing the system and holistic performance of the Australian Life Saving Team and dedicated to achieving the campaign goal of retaining the World Championship title across both the Youth and Open categories.

Nomination Process

A position description for each role will be available in the new year. The position description must be read, understood and the nomination form submitted by the applicant. Applicants are unable to be considered for selection unless the correct nomination form is completed by the advertised date below. There is one form for both Open and Youth Team Manager Nominations and another for Assistant Coach Nominations. The nomination forms can be accessed using the links below.
