Subject:	Competition Update – Round 1 2023 Sharkskin IRB Premiership Series

The Carnival Committee met this afternoon to discuss the impact of impending swell and weather conditions for the weekend of 29 & 30 April 2023 on the conduct of competition for Round 1 of the 2023 Sharkskin IRB Premiership Series.

Due to the forecasted swell, wind and rain for this weekend and the likely impact on conduct of safe competition, the Carnival Committee decided upon the following.

- Round 1 of the 2023 Sharkskin IRB Premiership Series will be conducted on Saturday 29 April only.
- The Rookie division will contest the Rescue event only.
- All other divisions will compete in the Rescue and Rescue Tube events only.
- Scrutineering will still take place on Friday afternoon.

The Carnival Committee acknowledges that the safety of competitors, officials and work party is of the utmost importance. SLSNSW will release the Final Event Information with a program which reflects the decisions above tomorrow morning (Thursday 27 April 2023).

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Jim Pinnington on 0497 403 017.

Thanks for your understanding.
