Welcome messages

On behalf of the Board of Surf Life Saving NSW, our staff and our incredible host clubs, I would like to welcome you to the 2026 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships, proudly presented by Your local club. It's been said that Blacksmiths Beach is the 'unofficial home of the State Championships', and you only need to step onto this stretch of sand to see why. In coming back to this location, which last hosted the Championships five years ago, we get to reminisce on the great memories that were made several seasons back, and we prepare to make a bunch of new ones over the coming days and weeks. The Age Championships program is the start of 12 action-packed days of competition which will see some 20,000 competitors, spectators and volunteer officials descend on the Lake Macquarie region – an incredible advertisement for surf sports in NSW and more broadly as well. A large portion of my time in Surf Life Saving has been dedicated to surf sports, and I know I speak for so many when I say it is a real joy of mine to watch our athletes, from those contesting their first Championships right up to our elite Open competitors, challenging themselves in the full suite of events, from swim, ski, board and ironperson racing, through to beach sprints, flags, relays, surf boats and lifesaving.

Surf Life Saving NSW acknowledges that the NSW Championships will be held on the land of the Awabakal people – the traditional, Indigenous custodians of the land. We pay our respects to elders' past and present.

I must take this opportunity to thank the volunteers who make this all possible. Your continued support, dedication, and ceaseless drive to make these carnivals run smoothly, is what brings so many people back year after year.

We also thank Swansea Belmont surf club, Caves Beach surf club, Lake Macquarie City Council, and our fantastic sponsors for making this possible, and look forward to an exciting few weeks.

Don van Keimpema OAM
SLSNSW Director &
Chair of Surf Sports

On behalf of Lake Macquarie City Council, I'm delighted to welcome competitors, officials and visitors back to Blacksmiths Beach for the 2026 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships.

This year marks the beginning of three consecutive years of hosting this premier event at Blacksmiths, a proud achievement for our city and a testament to the strength of our partnership with Swansea Belmont Surf Life Saving Club.

The Championships bring incredible energy to Lake Macquarie and give us the chance to share the natural beauty and vibrant lifestyle we're fortunate to call home. Beyond the competition, I encourage you to explore our stunning coastline, vibrant town centres and the many attractions that make Lake Macquarie such a special place.

Our community is known for its hospitality, and these Championships offer visitors the opportunity to experience more than just the beach. From scenic walks and shared paths to great dining and family-friendly activities, there's something for everyone.

I was heartened to hear that many in the Surf Life Saving community consider Blacksmiths the unofficial home of NSW Surf Life Saving Championships due to our success in previous years. What a reputation to be proud of. Over the next three years, we have a unique opportunity to build on this success and create even more memorable moments for competitors and visitors alike.

Hosting an event of this scale is no small feat. I commend Swansea Belmont Surf Life Saving Club for the months of planning and preparation that have gone into creating a safe and enjoyable experience for all. Their dedication and passion are at the heart of this event's success.

Lake Macquarie City Council is proud to support the Championships and showcase our beautiful coastal location. I wish every athlete, official and spectator an unforgettable experience and look forward to cheering on the lifesavers as they compete for glory at Blacksmiths Beach.

Adam Shultz
Lake Macquarie City Council
Mayor

On behalf of the members of Swansea Belmont Surf Life Saving Club and the local community, I am pleased to welcome athletes, officials, volunteers and supporters to Blacksmiths Beach for the NSW Surf Life Saving Championships and the first event of a new three-year hosting commitment.

Swansea Belmont Surf Life Saving Club is proud to once again host this prestigious event, having successfully delivered the Championships between 2017 and 2021. A dedicated team of volunteers, officials and event partners has worked extensively behind the scenes to ensure a safe, well-run and enjoyable carnival for all participants.

We are delighted to welcome competing clubs from across New South Wales, with athletes and families travelling from all corners of the state to take part over the 12 days of competition. The scale of this event reflects the strength and depth of surf life saving across NSW and the commitment of its members.

I encourage all competitors and supporters to take the opportunity between events to enjoy the hospitality of our club and the broader Lake Macquarie region.

I extend my sincere thanks to the members of Swansea Belmont Surf Life Saving Club and our local community for their outstanding support in delivering an event of this magnitude. The NSW Surf Life Saving Championships is one of the largest sporting events of its kind in Australia, and I am extremely proud of the dedication and professionalism shown by our membership.

I would also like to acknowledge Surf Life Saving NSW, Lake Macquarie City Council, our event partners, suppliers and supporting organisations for their ongoing support of the Championships and our surf club.

Finally, I wish all competitors the very best and hope you enjoy your time at Blacksmiths Beach. We look forward to welcoming you to Swansea Belmont Surf Life Saving Club for what promises to be a memorable Championships.

Steiner Going from Strength to Strength

A bumper summer, including a maiden birth in the premier Iron Series in the country, has Noah Steiner of Wanda surf club primed for big things as one of the biggest months of surf sports action begins in Lake Macquarie.

Australian medals are on the horizon but first, all roads lead to Blacksmiths for the 2026 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships – the biggest festival of surf sports in the state – and Steiner will be hoping to build on the foundations he's worked so hard to establish in the past few months.

There's as much to love about the man behind the performances as well – an endearing personality fortified by a strong will and ethos, which has helped him to deliver a season with some of the best results in his career.

"It's been a really big year of growth for me," he agreed.

"The biggest highlight was definitely qualifying for my first Iron Series. That's something I've been chasing for a long time, so to finally break through was pretty special.

"I was fortunate enough to put together a pretty consistent series with a number of top 10 finishes - which gave me a lot of confidence that I can compete at that level.

"The goal now would be to keep building on that experience – qualify again, become more competitive in the Series, and over time push towards bigger goals like contending for an Australian Ironman title."

The next step in that journey begins at Swansea Belmont – a location many are familiar with and have been shaped by. The club last hosted the State Championships in the early 2020s.

It was the site of Steiner's first ever State gold medal, a result he remembers fondly, and he's excited to challenge himself once again at a beach that rewards what he describes as 'versatile athletes'.

And Wanda has many of those. Thanks to the training regime of former World, Australian and NSW Ironman Champion, Nathan Smith, the club, like Steiner, gets better and better as the years go by.

"The squad at Wanda has seen such massive growth in the past three years," Steiner said.

"We're a young, hungry training group and really feed off each other, which has fostered our growing success both individually and as a team.

"The culture and mateship help our squad continue to grow, and with it, our collective ambition and success."

They're certainly a squad to watch, having finished second on the Overall Point Score last year.

Buoyed by Steiner, on a mantra of 'racing hard, executing well, and ironing out weaknesses' as he hopes to turn a bevy of State Champs podium medals in 2025 into gold in 2026, there is plenty of exciting things on the horizon for athlete and club.

REES' HOME BEACH

the Springboard for More Big Things

She's become one of surf sports must-watch athletes - a prospect who will feature amongst the very best for a long time - and now Katy Rees gets a home NSW Surf Life Saving Championships to help further propel her rapid, and hard-earned, rise to the top.

Less than a year after the Swansea Belmont athlete really announced herself on the big stage, cleaning up in the U17 category at Queenscliff with six golds across individual and team events, she has a chance to do it all over again on the same sand that's squeaked under her feet since she was a four-year-old Nipper.

It's an opportunity many competitors dream of, and one Rees isn't taking for granted.

"It [hosting State Champs at Blacksmiths] honestly means so much to me," she said.

"Swansea is where I started Nippers, where I've trained my whole life, and where I raced in my first ever State Championships. Being back at the beach I grew up on feels incredibly special.

"There's definitely something extra about racing at home. Having my family, friends, and the entire club, who have all played such a big role in my journey, there to support me is really meaningful, and it's something I'm so excited for."

The enthusiasm is contagious from top to bottom throughout the Swansea surf club. In fact, it's something she loves deeply about her 'second family'; something that fuels her to want to be the best she can be.

Rees has developed into a role model on and off the beach, so much so that her success has become more than just the sum of its parts.

"I absolutely love it when the younger kids in the club come up and ask me questions," she said.

"Seeing how excited they are about the sport reminds me so much of myself when I was younger. It honestly wasn't that long ago that I was the little girl so excited to go up and speak to the older girls at training.

"Now that I'm in that position, I try to always make time for the younger kids and be approachable, because I know how much that meant to me growing up."

While many would be tempted to look ahead to the future, Rees is focussed on what's in front of her – the chance to enjoy a major carnival before going home to sleep in her own bed each night.

"If I can walk off the beach knowing I raced the way I know I can and did myself and my club proud on my home beach, I'll be quietly stoked," she said.

"And it's always good to win a couple of medals, too!"

South Curly Crews Ready to Race

Looking to build on another season of sustained excellence across the board, South Curl Curl SLSC's surf boat rowers are ready and raring to challenge for gold at the 2026 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships.

The Sydney Northern Beaches club boasts a bevy of home-grown talent – almost the entirety of its boatie crews have come up through Nippers.

As sweep, Rob Lowery puts it, "you see the kids dominating now in the Colts, you'll find most of their dads in the Masters. They're the ones who dug the trenches."

It's an ethos that has established a formidable suite of teams across all eight divisions, where they're ranging from "strong to extra strong" and benefitting from many years of work building a culture around the club.

And the focus is now on State Champs, where there's medals to be defended and earned.

"Last season our Open Women's crew stepped up from Reserve Grade, and we won State at Queenscliff, then we made the Australian final but got knocked out the back by a set and didn't place," Rob said.

"Easy to focus on that result, but if I'd said to them at the start of the year 'hey, we're going to step up to A Grade, we'll win a State gold medal and then miss out at Aussies, would you still be keen,' they'd all have said an emphatic yes.

"State is a big part of our season."

Rob will sweep two crews this year at Blacksmiths; the Open Male 'Blitz' and the U23 Male 'Dribblers' – the latter of which just represented NSW at the Interstate Surf Boat Championships at Wanda.

His journey started in the 80s, as a junior at Newport SLSC, and he's a testament to sticking to your guns and trusting the process.

"The first gold medal I was part of was in 2015 at Aussies when I swept the Open Female crew to the win, but it was 30 years of duck eggs before that," he said.

"Your approach changes over the years, you know back then I thought how good it would be to push your boat onto the line for a big final, whereas now I'm not really doing it for myself anymore.

"There's always other rowers who maybe haven't tasted that success yet that you want to share it with."

That 'one in, all in' mindset carries over into his philosophy, and provides a solid platform for the club to build off heading into the Championships.

"If you do this sport only for the medal, you'll have more disappointment than success," he said.

"I've said a thousand times, the surf is always going to have its say. The best thing you can do is prepare, and if you arrive at State or Aussie titles and can look in the mirror and say I can win this, then you've already won really."

Meet your OFFICIALS

Our officials are one of the bedrocks of surf sports, ensuring the carnivals run to time and as smoothly as possible.

They're invaluable assets to the movement – a band of dedicated volunteers, many of whom have been doing it for years.

Then there's the likes of Bate Bay athletes, Milla Coles and Kaitlyn Williams; young, fresh officials bringing a new perspective and enthusiasm to the beach.

There had always been interest, always a sense they wanted to offer their time to help where they could, but they needed a push. And it came from the safe place that so many meaningful pushes do.

Mum.

"I'd always help out at carnivals where I could, and then my mum told us we should get into it properly, and get accredited as an official," Kaitlyn said.

"So yeah, when Kaitlyn's mum was like 'You should come try it', we thought yeah why not, I can't compete right now, I can go down and see everyone else while I'm doing it, let's give it a go," Milla added.

They're raving about it, too. The girls have had an excellent introduction to officiating, with Milla having already done each of the Beach Stormers rounds and both were on the beach at the NSW Country Championships.

"It's been so easy, the people are lovely," Milla said.

"It doesn't take too long to get accredited. No, it doesn't take long at all. You're always put with someone with lots of experience."

"Yeah, and you're always like, 'You can put in a request of who you'd prefer to be with!' The process is so accommodating," confirmed Kaitlyn.

As with any new skill, it's been challenging being confronted with tough, on-the-spot decisions, particularly ones that benefit from experience.

That said, they've loved working with the younger age groups and being there for the thrills and spills.

"I love working with the kids, it's actually so fun – they're very funny, the comments they make," Milla said.

"Some of them will get out and be so stoked, they'll say 'Yay, ice cream' or something. They're so funny."

"You see some little personalities coming out for sure," Kaitlyn said.

While both will be back to competing soon they're keen to continue officiating and may even be on the beach for the Age Championships at Swansea. Keep an eye out and say hello, it's great to have new officials coming through the ranks!
