

Nomination for Life Membership of Surf Life Saving New South Wales

Life Membership of SLSNSW Nomination Guidelines

Background

Surf Life Saving NSW Life Membership recognises those individual members who voluntarily rendered a distinguished, sustained, and conspicuous service to SLSNSW over a period of at least twenty (20) years.

Nomination Guidelines

The following nomination guidelines shall be followed for SLSNSW Life Membership:

- All nominations must be submitted via email using the Life Membership Nomination Form.
- If additional space is required, please attach supporting documentation.
- All nominations must be endorsed by Club and Branch Presidents or their representatives.
- Nominations are considered once per year, in November.

Submission Process:

- Endorsed nominations are to be submitted via email at lifemembership@surflifesaving.com.au by 5:00pm Friday 26 September 2025.

Judging Process

1. The SLSNSW Life Membership Committee will review all nominations.
2. The Life Membership Committee will make a recommendation to the SLSNSW State Council.
3. Any member awarded SLSNSW Life Membership will be recorded in the minutes of the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of which the member is awarded.
4. Unsuccessful nominations may be resubmitted in following years.

How to Nominate

- The proposer must clearly summarise the nominee's individual achievements and their impact on SLSNSW and/or SLISA.
- Focus should be placed on the nominee's distinctive contributions, not those made collectively.
- Provide substantive evidence to support the claims.
- Use authoritative sources to validate the information included.
